The popular Novara Gospel Festival starts in charming town of Borgomanero

SEPTEMBER 25, 2013 BY SUSANNE LEAVE A COMMENT

The 9th Novara Gospel Festival takes place from 27th to 29th of September. For the first time, the festival doesn't get celebrated in Novara but in little town of charming Borgomanero. The Northern Italian town has about 23.000 inhabitants and can be easily reached from Baveno by a 30 minutes car-drive.

As Borgomanero is located southsides of the lakes Lago Maggiore and Lago d'Orta, this year's festival gets surrounded by an even more fascinating and inspiring landscape. Internationally renowned music artists will succeed on the stage of Teatro Rosmini in Borgomanero.

The festival is one of the most important events for gospel music in Italy. It has received the Gospel Music Award in 2012 and 2013.

The event starts on Friday night, 27th of September at 9pm. As every year, the Brotherhood Gospel Choir from Novara will do the opening. The choir was founded by Paolo Viana who also founded the Novara Gospel festival. The very successful choir has already won various awards; three of them in this year. After this very big festival opening well-known soloists Wayne Ellington and Lurine Cato from Great Britain will sing as guests of honour. Pianist Jason Thompson will do the instrumental escorting. On the second day, on Saturday, the Novara Gospel Festival Workshop Choir will do the big start for the evening. More than 100 voices under the direction of Wayne Ellington will ensure a voluminous and electrifying atmosphere. Saturday's main act is Texan Grammy- and Stellar-Award-winner Myron Butler. His voice is one of the most influencing and enthusiastic voices of modern gospel music. Since 2010 he is singing for the festival. This year for the first time, he will demonstrate typical singing technique of black music during a five hour Voice Masterclass, starting at 10am on Sunday.

In Italy, gospel music has many fans. The singing and swinging invites all kinds of people to feel free and celebrate life. Tickets for the festival can be purchased at www.ciaotickets.com as well as in all authorized outlets such as Theatre Rosmini in Borgomanero.
